

Tolsia JROTC Color Guard Tanner Swiger, Jacob Maynard, Harley Thompson, and Tyler Sizemore.

TOLSIA HIGH SCHOOL JROTC MILITARY BALL

GLENHAYES – The Tolsia High School JROTC Program held their 4th annual formal military ball on Saturday April 9th, 2016. Two hundred and ten cadets and their guests attended the ball at Tolsia High School. The guest speaker for the event was Dr. Kathy D’Antoni, Chief Officer for Division of Career-Technical Education West Virginia Dept. of Education. The cadets and guests enjoyed the evening with dinner, awards presentations and a dance that followed in the school gymnasium. Many awards were presented at the ball including: Distinguished Cadet for Academic Excellence- Cadet/Major Jon Reed, Senior

The Military Order of the Purple Heart Award – Cadet/Command

Sgt. Major Gage Minney
The Military Officers Association of America Medal-Cadet/Captain Jacob Webb
Cadet of the Year: Cadet/Captain Caleb Johnson.
The ball is a culmination of the year’s events for the Tolsia High JROTC Rebel Battalion.

JROTC Cadets Tyler Pinson, Kaitlyn Smith, Lea Blackburn and Shane Block

The receiving line for the JROTC Cadets and dates prior to the start of the ball.

LEFT: The table set in remembrance of the military POW’s and MIA’s. RIGHT: Dr. Kathy D’Antoni, Chief Officer Career-Technical Education WVDE was the guest speaker.

Personal Courage Awards presented by Sgt. Major Thomas Francis and Chief Tony Brown to Jacob Webb, Harley Thompson, Jaxon Hodge.

Elect TINA TURNER SARVER
Wayne County Magistrate
The MOST QUALIFIED Candidate in Division 1

WV Corrections Academy Graduate • Paralegal Degree
33 Years Experience in Criminal Justice
Current Pre-Trial Officer for Western Regional Day Report Center
Endorsed by Fraternal Order of Police Gold Star Lodge #65
Cabell County Fraternal Order of Police Lodge #122
Paid for by the Committee to Elect Tina Turner Sarver Magistrate